

THE CANDY LAND

DO YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT IS BEHIND THAT ONE SECRET DOOR THAT YOUR PARENTS HIDE? WELL I'M GOING TO TELL YOU THE STORY OF HOW JAMES DID.

It was 3pm and James and his family had just moved into their new house. Right away, James wanted to explore the new house so he did: first he explored the first floor, then the second and then the basement. The basement was the coolest part because it had been turned into a living room but his favourite place was his bedroom by far. But he didn't see the attic so when his dad went up there he followed him and looked around but he still didn't see everything.

But his parents did.

The next day, he wanted to play hide and seek because he thought he knew the house like the back of his hand. His mum was counting and he went into the attic and went right to the back and saw another old broken door with lolly pops, chocolate, candy canes and sweets spilling out from underneath and so he hid there. As time went past, the urge grew bigger and bigger until he couldn't resist to open it but as soon as he walked over to it his mum came and found him.

"Found you!" she said but as he walked away he wondered what other things were behind it.

At 8pm, his mum took him to bed but he couldn't sleep because all he could think about the door. A few hours later, he looked at his clock and it said 00:00... it was midnight. Slowly he got out of his bed and took the ladder down and climbed up it but his mum heard him and she came running after him. He began to sprint to the door as he opened it he got teleported to a Candy Land but the portal had disappeared behind him.

He was lost...

After a few hours, he was in a wood and saw something move. He slowly approached it and found it was a dog. It was a talking dog eating the candy floss trees and singing.

“Hello do you know how to get out of here?” said James with a hint of fear in his voice.

“Yes I can show you. My name’s Jack what’s yours?” said Jack.

“I’m James” he said as he was eating a candy cane.

“Follow me” said Jack excited. Five minutes later, they stopped to have a snack and a drink (chocolate and hot chocolate) and they set off again.

But after days in the Candy Land only one hour went by in the real world but still no luck.

After a day in the real world (but months in Candy Land) they still had no luck but they still kept looking but they couldn’t find the door. After a few hours in the candy world they started to think that they were never going to find the door but just as they were about to give up they saw a glowing light. It was the door but it had turned into a portal. After a sip of chocolate milk and a pack of Soar Patch Kids, they sprinted over to the portal. James held on to Jack and they were through the portal and back in their house but the door had disappeared and James had tons of sweets and a new talking dog.
